I. Peter Carrico left France for America about 1700 after a stormy voyage, suffering shipwreck enroute, he landed in Maryland, and settled in Charles County. He made deed to land in Charles County Maryland 1707, 1730, 1765, and died in 1765- His will dated April 14, 1764, proved October 18, 1765, mentions wife Margaret and 5 sons (Children: Abel, John, James, Jane, Thomas Ignatius, Peter Jr. Bartholomew and Basil)
Married-Margaret (probably Gates)

1.(a) Abel Carrico

(tradition says he was a French hugenot). Said to have been one of 3 brothers who came from France. He first lived in Charles County Maryland and made deed there 1730, 1736, 1738, and 1755. In the 1785 census of Virginia he was head of a family of 9. White Souls "9 White Souls" in Fairfax County. Tradition says he was a man of small stature. He died while on a visit at the home of his son Rev. William and was buried there in Grayson County, Virginia. He was not mentioned in his fathers will in 1764, but was living at that time.

2.(a) John Carrico mentioned in his fathers will 1765. Probably the John Carrico who was in the Revolutionary War, in Col. Hutchinson's Massachusetts Regiment (27th Continental) and also in the Navy receiving prize money for service on the Bon Home Richard under John Paul Jones and other services. The identity is still somewhat confused. Married 1st Marian Foster, 3-11-1771, at Beverly, Massachusett
Died 9-14-1775
Married 2nd Mary Hill 1-4-1781, Beverly, Massachusetts

3.(a) James Carrico date of birth not known. Inherited by his fathers will a tract of land in Charles Co. Md. (1765) known as "Carricos Hope," Possession to be had at his mothers death". James Carricoe of Peter "died intestate 1800 in Charles Co., Md. In the administeration accounts the name is spelt Carricoe. The executor was Henry Montgomery. His wife survived but name not mentioned.

4.(a) Jane Carrico: said to have come with brothers from France. Not mentioned in father's will. M. John Moore, an English officer, sent to America to transact business with George Washington. He married her and did not return to England. A brother of Thomas Moore the poet. She supposed to have been killed by Indians. The above all tradition. No records yet found.

5.(a) Thomas Ignatius Carrico b. Charles Co. Maryland, 1740; d. in Ky. 1812, in Hardin Co. Bought live stock in Washington Co. Md. (formerly a part of Prince George's Co) in 1792, 1793, 1794; bought land there
